

---

Volume 33, Number 2, April-June 2011

---

|                                                                                                                    |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK                                                                                      | 71  |
| Don Ambrose                                                                                                 |     |
| AN EVOLVING FIELD                                                                                           |     |
| The Creative Path: An Interview With Dean Keith Simonton                                                           | 72  |
| Suzanna E. Henshon                                                                                          |     |
| EARLY COLLEGE ENTRANCE AND LIFE SATISFACTION                                                                |     |
| Personal Well-Being of Gifted Students Following Participation in an Early College-Entrance Program                | 76  |
| Janette Boazman and Michael Sayler                                                                          |     |
| CULTURAL DIVERSITY AND TEACHERS                                                                             |     |
| Gifted Israeli Students' Perceptions of Teachers' Desired Characteristics: A Case of Cultural Orientation          | 86  |
| Billie Eilam and Hava E. Vidergor                                                                           |     |
| Teachers' Beliefs About Culturally, Linguistically, and Economically Diverse Gifted Students: A Quantitative Study | 97  |
| Catharina F. de Wet and E. Jean Gubbins                                                                     |     |
| DUAL EXCEPTIONALITY                                                                                         |     |
| Social and Self-Perceptions of Adolescents Identified as Gifted, Learning Disabled, and Twice-Exceptional          | 109 |
| Carolyn Barber and Conrad T. Mueller                                                                        |     |
| SECOND LANGUAGE ACQUISITION AND THE GIFTED                                                                  |     |
| Students' Gender and Ability Levels Impact on the Acquisition of Two French Verb Tenses                            | 121 |
| Ofélia R. Nikolova                                                                                          |     |
| DEPARTMENTS                                                                                                 |     |
| Gifted Conferences                                                                                                 | 134 |
| Special Issue on Visual-Spatial Talent                                                                             | 135 |

---

Volume 33, Number 3, July-September 2011

---

|                                                                                                    |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK                                                                      | 137 |
| Don Ambrose                                                                                 |     |
| AN EVOLVING FIELD                                                                           |     |
| A Life in Research, An Adventure in Creativity: An Interview with David W. Chan                    | 139 |
| Suzanna E. Henshon                                                                          |     |
| According to Jim: Proving Our Worth                                                                | 143 |
| James J. Gallagher                                                                          |     |
| FACILITATING STUDENTS' WORK                                                                 |     |
| Do Gifted Students Really Prefer to Work Alone?                                                    | 145 |
| Lisa R. French, Cheryl L. Walker, and Bruce M. Shore                                        |     |
| BELIEFS, ACTIONS, AND CHARACTERISTICS OF TEACHERS                                           |     |
| Characteristics and Competencies of Teachers of Gifted Learners: The Hong Kong Student Perspective | 160 |
| David W. Chan                                                                               |     |
| Gifted Girls: Gender Bias in Gifted Referrals                                                      | 170 |
| Margarita Bianco, Bryn Harris, Dorothy Garrison-Wade, and Nancy Leech                       |     |

THE UNSAVORY FORCED CHOICE

Levels of Intellectual Giftedness, Culture, and the Forced-Choice Dilemma ..... 182

Jae Yup Jung, Kerry Barnett, Miraca U. M. Gross, and John McCormick

ASCRIBING VALUE TO GIFTEDNESS

Five Values of Giftedness ..... 198

Karin M. Besjes-de Bock and Doret J. de Ruyter

DEPARTMENTS

Book Reviews—Anne N. Rinn, Section Editor

The Cluster Grouping Handbook: How to Challenge Gifted Students and Improve Achievement for All.

Winebrenner, S., & Brulles, D. (2008) ..... 208

Reviewed by Michael Clay Thompson

Enriching Curriculum for All Students. Renzulli, J. S., & Reis, S. M. (2008) ..... 209

Reviewed by Howard Michael Fuchs

Gifted Conferences ..... 211

Special Issue Announcements ..... 212

---

Volume 33, Number 4, October–December 2011

---

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK ..... 213

Don Ambrose

AN EVOLVING FIELD

International Literacy Crusader: An Interview With Susan Mandel Glazer ..... 215

Valerie K. Ambrose

LONG-TERM DEVELOPMENT OF CREATIVITY

Natural Acceleration: Supporting Creative Trajectories ..... 218

LeaNora M. Cohen

Creative Teachers ..... 228

Gillian Bramwell, Rosemary C. Reilly, Frank R. Lilly, Neomi Kronish, and Revathi Chennabathn

SOCIAFFECTIVE DIMENSIONS OF HIGH ABILITY

Socioaffective Issues and Concerns Among Gifted Filipino Children ..... 239

Rhoda Myra Garces-Bacsal

CAREER DECISIONS AND THINKING STYLES

The Relationship Between Thinking Style Differences and Career Choices for High-Achieving Students ..... 252

Mihyeon Kim

UNDERREPRESENTATION, INJUSTICE, AND GIFTED BLACK MALES

New Directions for Gifted Black Males Suffering From Bystander Effects: A Call for Upstanders ..... 263

Tarek C. Grantham

DEPARTMENTS

Gifted Conferences ..... 273

Special Issue Announcement ..... 274

Annual Contents Listing

